In life it is always important to strike a balance. Mental and physical health being the pivot to our growth. For anyone and everyone to have a contented life we have to ensure growth in our personality by enabling mental peace and physical well being. We have to work towards this agenda by focusing on whatever we do with our hundred percent energy. We must participate in academics, sports, work with all the positivity that we can possibly gather. It is very important to spend time with your family, along with the above. It not only helps strengthen relations but is also beneficial for everyone's mental health. We must have a passion in our life that we should work towards. It can be anything you desire as long as it does not harm you or anyone else physically or mentally. If you enjoy academics focus on that but do take out some time for physical activity. In case you are a sports person, do try to balance it with a little bit of academics. Too much of anything, however good does harm in the long run. Consistency and balance will definitely help you excel in the field of your passion. This will always have a positive impact on your life. We must never forget to consider one thing, just because we enjoy a certain activity it is not necessary that it is good for us. This is where we come back to the point of striking a balance. Reading, sports, outdoors, video games, food, everything requires a balance. Excess of anything becomes harmful.

We have to learn to be organised as this also helps create a balance. Keep a plan of action in mind, time for tasks you enjoy along with those you don't. Strike a balance setting goals and aim to achieve them. Keeping a positive mindset is extremely important. Our body along with the mind requires to stay healthy. So eat right and think positive. Any indulgences must be kept as a reward for self. This kind of life style, definitely, is the path to a framework which will lead to a good life, a healthy mind along with a healthy body, ensuring overall well-being with high energy level and mood boosters.

Wishing for a healthy mind in a healthy body, this New year.

MY TEACHER

Oh, my teacher! you are so sweet.
I like the your behavior with which you treat.
You love, you care, you taught me to dare,
To stand in front of all,
To tell and share everything big and small.
You teach me how I can grow,
To cross the path broad and narrow.
Your knowledge shower,
Gave us power,
To climb the "success tower"!
T- talented
E- educated
A- attentive
C- caring
H- helping
E- efficient
R- responsible
Dedicated to all the teachers who teach us and all the parents who are the first teacher of their kids.

OH, TEACHER YOU MAKE US

Oh, teacher, you make us from witless to wise
You lead us from darkness to light.
Oh, teacher, you move us from ignorance to knowledge
You turn our weakness into strength
Oh, teacher, you move us from wrong to right
You build our confidence by spreading positive vibes
Oh, teacher, you are the heart of our class and the soul of our school
You are very special to us!

THE LIGHT

Choose a light you want,
Dancing flowers with a wand.
Have a little magic in your life,
With the shine of sunlight.
Let the waves come to you,
With a happy morning for you.
Have a little fun in your life,
Create something for sunlight.
Let the raise come to you,
With a happy dream for you.
Host the dreams you want,
Break the nuts with a small count.
With a fluorescent light,
You'll make all found.
Sail the boats in waves,
Catch a fish by a mermaid.
Let the birds chirp
With a delightful song you feel,
With a happy morning of sunlight.
