IPSC STUDENTS' CONCLAVE 2021 - 22
24th to 26th October 2021
Schools: The Cradles of i-Generation Leaders

The role of leader has undergone a major transformation. With job-hopping and non-hierarchical set up becoming the new norm, expectations and bars of i-Generation (popularly known as Gen Z) have definitely seen a surge. The meaning of happiness extends far beyond the fat pay cheques and increments. But at the same time, we are left pondering on the changing definition of success and happiness. Is success an indicator of their happiness? More importantly, what does success mean to them? The journey of nurturing a laudable leader, not boss, begins in the cradle called school where teachers are the parents and school is the home.
