THOUGHT OF THE MONTH

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much

Helen Keller

WORD OF THE MONTH

The interaction or cooperation of two or more organisations or agents to produce a combined effect greater than the sum of their separate efforts

Poesy

All I see is green and white, while musing I retire for the night.
Though darkness covers my eyes It's that deep brown that keeps me in the light my mind fixated on that chocolate color, warm yet I am lost in my thoughts as if it's a norm.
Alas! it's far away, my dream all I want are those colors, I seem.
No, no, no!
don't make my boat row away from its destiny, its fate don't make me realise, it's too late too late to dream about colors, about peace because peace is too far away and I won't see these shades without breaking each into a piece
because those pieces aren't here, no way.
I wake up, drenched in sweat and ecstasy reciting in my head like poesy those moments, filled with color, warm but now that they exist no more, there is a storm of emotions, of longing, of hurt I'll try my best to make sure they convert.
But till then all I see is green and white while musing, I'll again retire for the night.
