

RCBH an outlook

RCBH'S EDITION | JUNE 2025 | VOLUME 2 | PAGES 3

"from Holidays to
New Horizons!"

After weeks of quiet corridors and empty rooms, the boarding house has finally come alive again with everyone's return. We were delighted to welcome back each and every one of them after the long holidays.

"Welcome back girls!!"

"A Visit To The Temple"

The temple stood quietly amidst the morning mist, its ancient stones warmed by the gentle touch of the rising sun. As the students approached, air grew still and was filled with the soft sense of incense and blooming jasmine.

Visiting the temple on Rath Yatra filled everyone's heart with peace and joy, and it reminded us of the deep connection with our culture..

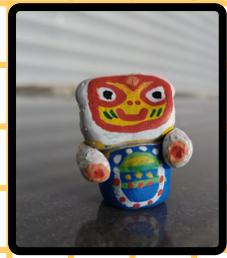

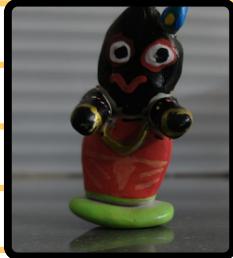

"Craft Your Calm"

Creative activities such as drawing and crafting offer a wonderful way to express emotions, ideas, and imaginations.

While doing the activity, the girls showed interest and made beautiful pieces of art that were filled with a sense of emotion, creativity, ideas and imagination.

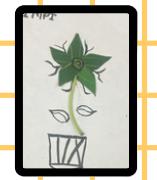

They explored their inner thoughts, discovered new perspectives, and developed a deeper understanding of themselves and the world around them.

"A Bus Ride To Remember" ...

As the wheels turned and the city blurred past, we sat together—friends, laughter, and a little adventure between stops. Some sang songs, while others stared outside, but everyone felt the calm rhythm of the road. On that bus, with songs in the air and wind in our hair, we didn't just travel miles—we made memories. It wasn't just a ride, it was a journey full of little wonders and quiet joy.
