TEMPLE SERVICE ON RAM NAVAMI

On 6th April, all of us from R.D.B.H participated in the Temple Service to celebrate Ram Navami. The experience was spiritually enriching and allowed us to reflect on the significance of this sacred day. We had the opportunity to engage in prayers, rituals, and discussions that deepened our understanding of Ram Navami and its cultural importance. The atmosphere was filled with devotion, and it reminded us of the values of discipline, devotion, respect for our traditions, and the importance of humility. This experience helped strengthen our sense of community and spiritual growth, making it a truly meaningful and unforgettable part of our lives

IPSC SWIMMING COMPETITION

In IPSC Swimming 2 students from R.D.B.H represented us at the prestigious IPSC Swimming competition , a national platform that brings together young swimmers from all over the country.

These students manifested their excellance in hardwork , perseverance and gaining valuble experiences. The students who participated are Gaurav Thakkar and Lal Dhananjay Nath Shahdeo both from class 12. Their achievements at the competition reflect the spirit of determination and growth that defines our institution.

CISCE BASKETBALL REGIONALS

In the CISCE Basketball Competition, a group of dedicated students from R.D.B.H proudly represented us on this prestigious national platform that brings together talented young athletes from across the country. The team showcased their passion for the sport, commitment to teamwork, and resilience in a highly competitive environment.

The students who participated were Divyansh Agrawal, Mayank Sahu, Shorya Vardhan Singh, Abhiuday Singh, Naman Agrawal, Farhan Ahmed, and Salman Meman. Their participation in this esteemed tournament reflects their discipline, sportsmanship, and continuous pursuit of excellence. The experience they gained stands as a testament to their dedication and the supportive spirit of our institution.

Inter Set Dramatics holds a place of great importance in the annual calendar of Rajkumar College as it not only offers the students a platform to showcase their acting skills but also instills in them the value of teamwork and confidence. This year, it was held on 16 April (English) and 17 April (Hindi). This year, the boys of RDBH once again displayed remarkable enthusiasm and commitment:

From the "Aryans", Swarnim Kunj and Sujal Korsewada showcased their acting prowess in the English play, while Ghanisth Pratap Dugga, Shanta Kumar Patley, Ashish Ghritlahare, Katley Pritam, and Daksh Pandey represented their set in the Hindi play and Ghanisth Pratap Dugga bagged the "Best Actor" for his brilliant performance.

THE "BIKRAMS" WERE REPRESENTED IN ENGLISH BY BHAVYA JAIN AND SHOUBHAGYA ADITYA DEO, WHILE SALMAN MEMAN, NAVEEN KHUTE AND HARDIK BAFNA BROUGHT THEIR TALENTS TO THE HINDI STAGE.

INTER SET DRAMATICS

The "Ranas" fielded a strong lineup as well, with Anay Sinha, Aarush Agrawal, and Abhishek Goyal taking the English stage, and MD Farhan Ahmed, Yaduvardhan Bansal, Rajeev Kumar Paikra, and Anurag Ratrey performing in Hindi. Priyanshu Bhati was awarded "Best Supporting Actor" in Hindi for his remarkable acting.

The "Rajputs" put forward an equally commendable performance in Hindi, which was enthusiastically presented by Sparsh Saraf and Shubh Agrawal.

After weeks of rehearsals and sheer determination, it was "Ranas" who emerged victorious. Regardless of the results, each actor put their best foot forward to entertain the audience making the event truly unforgettable.

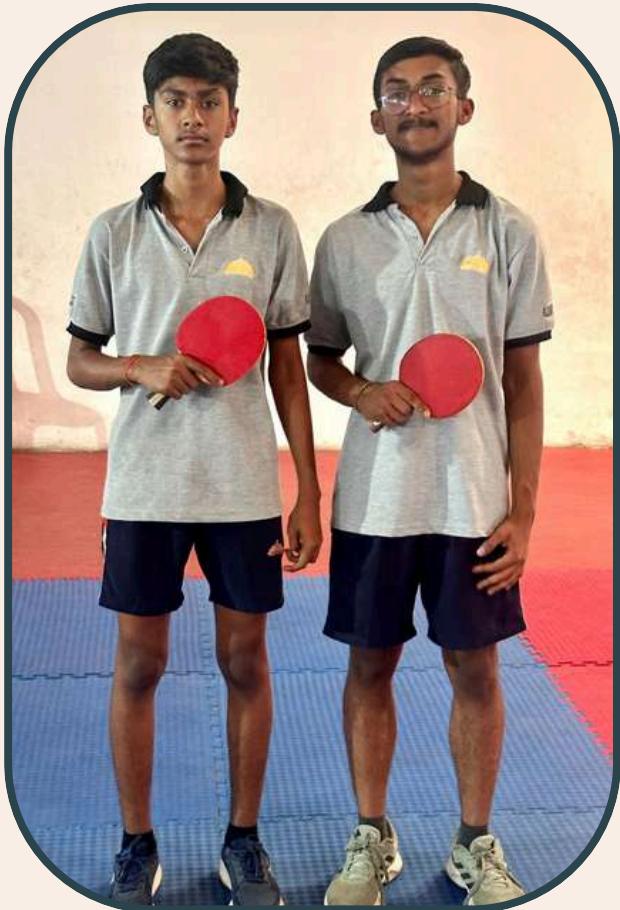

This year, the boys of RDBH once again displayed remarkable enthusiasm and commitment. The Inter-set Badminton Championship was an unforgettable event filled with energy, excitement, and fierce competition. Our very own R.D.B.H boys made us proud with their performances on the court. Salman Meman, representing the Bikrams, played like an absolute star. His powerful smashes and calm presence helped the Bikrams clinch the first position in style. Himesh Singh Markam from the Rajputs gave a tough fight throughout the tournament, showing great focus and teamwork, and led his team to a well-deserved second place.

Swarnim Kunj and Aryan Hotwani, who represented the Aryans, gave their best efforts with enthusiasm and determination, even though their team finished last. Their never-give-up attitude truly stood out and earned them respect from everyone watching. Every match was a nail-biter, and the cheers from the crowd made the atmosphere electric. This championship wasn't just about winning, but about playing with heart —and our boys did exactly that!

Students from our Boarding House showcased outstanding talent and sportsmanship in April. Notably, Divyansh Agrawal and Abhisek Goyal represented the school in the Under-19 Table Tennis CISCE Regional Championship, earning accolades for their commendable performance. Their dedication and spirit reflect the excellence and competitive edge that RDBH continues to nurture among its students.

Making Waves Across Borders

Lal Dhananjay Nath Shahdeo created history by becoming the first AFS exchange student to return from Italy just to participate in the IPSC Swimming competition. His passion and commitment brought him back home for this special event, where he not only competed but also won a bronze medal. He now returns to Italy to continue his exchange journey—an inspiring example of dedication and pride in one's roots.
