Mehendi Art

The girls of PGBH brought festive vibes to the boarding as they applied beautiful mehndi designs ahead of Raksha Bandhan. The hostel was filled with laughter, the rich scent of henna and excited chatter.

Rakshabandhan

The girls of PGBH celebrated Rakshabandhan with joy and grace during a heart warming ceremony at the temple.

Rotary club

We're incredibly proud of the girls from PGBH who took part in the Rotary Club event in Raipur, Chhattisgarh. Their talent, confidence and professionalism left a lasting impression.

Independence Day

The girls of PGBH proudly took part in Independence Day celebrations, showcasing their talents through speeches and dances that reflected their love for the country.

Janmashtami

The girls of PGBH visited the temple to celebrate Janmashtami with devotion and grace. It was a peaceful and meaningful way to mark the occasion and connect with the spirit of the festival.

Ganesh Puja

The girls from PGBH came together to celebrate Ganesh Puja with heartfelt prayers, festive spirit and a shared sense of devotion, making the day truly special.

Midnight Musings of Boarding Hearts

Music doesn't just fill the room -It fills your soul

It has the power to fully take you out of your darkest and lift you higher than you thought possible its not just background voice- its the soundtrack to your strength every time you hit play you choose to keep moving to keep dreaming to keep becoming a person you are meant to be

My Constant

Long distance friendships? even before you know what friendship is you grow with them even before you know what love is you love them unconditionally you fight with them all the time long, to stay away from you until you fight for them to stay with you one more moment you ignore most of their advises until you crave for them for their just one more call you don't understand their importance miles apart
