Boarding House Party

A Night to Remember:

Welcome Party for ISC Batch 2027 Into Class 12

The Welcome Party for the ISC Batch of 2027 was held in the Stow Hall, marking the student's promotion from Class 11 to Class 12 and the responsibilities that come with it.

The event featured an energetic performance by the BDBH Music Band and impressive dance performances by the students. The gracious visit of the Vice Principal Sir added significance to the occasion. The food arrangements were excellent and enjoyed by all. The event strengthened bonds among students and ended on a joyful note, leaving behind lasting memories.

The Essence of Theatrical Brilliance

Best Supporting Actor – English Dramatics

In the Inter-Set Hindi Dramatics Competition, Ayush Sahu of Ranastambh was awarded the Best Supporting Actor title for his exceptional performance. His powerful expressions, convincing characterisation, and engaging dialogue delivery enriched the play and left a lasting impression on both the audience and the judges. Ayush's achievement reflects his passion for theatre and the spirit of excellence displayed throughout the competition.

In a performance that exemplified the power of nuanced acting, Advay Chaturvedi of Rajputs was deservedly honoured with the Best Supporting Actor award in the Inter-Set English Dramatics Competition. With commanding stage presence, impeccable dialogue delivery, and an exceptional ability to convey emotion, he transformed his supporting role into one of the most memorable performances of the event. His dedication, confidence, and theatrical brilliance not only elevated the production but also earned him the admiration of the audience and judges alike, making his victory a fitting tribute to his talent.

Best Supporting Actor – Hindi Dramatics

At the Round Square event Teen Fears, Yash Modi earned the title of Best Editor with a piece that transformed vulnerability into powerful storytelling. Tasked with exploring fear through narrative, he brought remarkable depth and sensitivity to his work, shaping raw emotion into a cohesive and compelling story. His editing stood out for its precision, rhythm, and ability to elevate the writer's voice without losing authenticity. With a keen eye for detail and an intuitive sense of structure, Yash turned an abstract emotion into something vivid and resonant—leaving a lasting impression as an editor who refines not just words, but meaning itself.

At the Emerald Heights Multiformat Debate, Advay Chaturvedi emerged as Best Speaker with a performance defined by clarity, confidence, and contemporary flair. He delivered ideas with a striking balance of structure and spontaneity, making even the most complex arguments feel sharp and accessible. His speaking style was direct yet engaging, marked by quick adaptability and a strong sense of presence that held attention throughout. More than just effective communication, Advay brought a modern edge to debating—fluid, thoughtful, and impactful—leaving behind the impression of a speaker built for today's fast-paced, idea-driven arenas.

The RKCian Podcast

Behind the RKCian Podcast are four passionate students—Rajyavardhan Badhan, Yash Modi, Atharva Goyal, and Samarth Singh Thakur—who brought this initiative to life with creativity and dedication.

With their curiosity and natural flair for conversation, they've gone beyond simple interviews to create meaningful and engaging discussions that reflect the true spirit of Rajkumar College. Their teamwork and sincerity shine through in every episode.

RDBH proudly celebrates their efforts, as they continue to inspire and connect the RKC community through their voices.

Striking Beyond Boundaries

Three students of RDBH(ISC-27) named Garvit Shukla, Shreyash Pratap Singh and Samved Singh Deo , earned the proud opportunity to represent RKC at the prestigious Gwalior cricket tournament held at The Scindia School. Demonstrating remarkable skill, teamwork, and sportsmanship, they carried the spirit of the game with confidence and discipline. Competing at a high level, they not only showcased their individual talent but also reflected the strength and unity of their school, making it a truly commendable and memorable representation.

Crowned on the Field

Vighnesh S. Shukla brought exceptional skill and determination to the field, earning the prestigious title of Player of the Tournament in hockey. Representing the Set Rajputs, he delivered consistently outstanding performances, marked by precision, agility, and a deep understanding of the game. His ability to rise to the occasion and lead with confidence set him apart, making his contribution truly remarkable. Through his dedication and excellence, Vighnesh not only achieved personal glory but also brought pride and honor to his boarding.

New Home, New Memories: The Transition to RDBH

Transitioning from Grade 11 to Grade 12 is more than just a step up the academic ladder; it is a rite of passage. As we leave behind the familiar hallways of BDBH, we carry with us a year's worth of laughter, lessons, and unbreakable bonds. Stepping through the archway into RDBH marks the beginning of our final chapter—the "senior year" we've always anticipated. With our bags packed and spirits high, we aren't just changing boarding houses; we are leveling up our ambitions. From the foundations built in BDBH to the heights we aim to reach in RDBH, the journey continues with the same squad, a new home, and a shared vision for the future. The RDBH era has officially begun!
